

January 2017

Greetings!

We are already grateful to you as a leader of bolstering Binghamton and the Southern Tier with your fine philanthropic giving. Generosity to your community is one of the marks of a successful company with an acute sense of gratitude to those who make it all possible, your loyal and wonderful customers. Our mission, beyond producing professional opera, is to benefit, enrich, and educate our community, giving back to those who make our artistic vision possible.

On March 25, 2017, Tri-Cities Opera will hold a gala fundraiser to announce our 2017-2018 season. An enjoyable evening of inspired cuisine, live entertainment and a silent auction awaits our guests at this one-of-a-kind event. The reveal of each production will inspire a course of gourmet tapas accompanied by musical selections. This imaginative food and music pairing will be created for us by PS Restaurant.

Tri-Cities Opera seeks your support: We have four levels of sponsorship, and are also accepting donations for our silent auction. If a sponsorship or donation is not the right fit for your company, we welcome you to put together a table of attendees.

Please peruse the enclosed documents for your contribution options. If for any reason you have questions about this event, or have other ideas or means of contributing, I welcome your phone call or email. As always, we remain grateful for all that you do in our community!

"The greatest dividends in life are those that we give away."

— Craig D. Lounsbrough

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John Rozzoni".

John Rozzoni

Director of Community Engagement
rozzoni@tricitieopera.org

